EXHIBITIONS ON DISPLAY AT HOUSE OF SWEDEN

Spirit of the Wild - Mattias Klum
One of the most important natural history photographers of our time shares the stories of his journeys; from deep in the Arctic to wild places like Borneo rainforest to the savannahs of Tanzania or the life under the sea. In partnership with: Mattias Klum Tierra Grande AB.

Woodland Sweden
Wooden architecture and design is becoming a new Swedish export item. This exhibition shows the rapid development in Swedish innovative contemporary architecture. In partnership with: Swedish Association of Architects and the Swedish Institute.

Viktigt by Ingegerd Råman
House of Sweden's own designer Ingegerd Råman tells us about the craftsmanship behind her collection of glass, ceramic, bamboo and natural fibers. In partnership with: IKEA USA.

Wingårdhs
House of Sweden turns 10 years this fall. The architects behind the beautiful building tell us what motivated the design of this stunning example of contemporary Scandinavian architecture. In partnership with: Wingårdhs.

The Swedish Freedom of the Press Act Unfolded
Passed in 1766 as the first constitutionally protected freedom of the press legislation in the world. This unique timeline exhibition tells Sweden's story. In partnership with: Swedish Institute. #ThisIsFreedom

Gender Equality
We've come a long way - haven't we? A look at Sweden's achievements in gender equality. An exhibition that aims to inspire and reflect.
In partnership with: Swedish Institute.
