Two main outcomes are expected to be achieved by the intervention:

- That Liberian journalists are equipped with resources, know-how and support to pursue independent and investigative journalism during and after the project, and
- That Liberian news organizations and New Narratives have the resources and know-how to enhance financial viability in a sustainable way to support investigative journalism.

Activities

New Narratives will achieve its goal by conducting broad activities aimed at promoting and boosting a sustainable investigative journalism ecosystem through

- a) building capacity that is a strong, investigative, and independent,
- b) building trusted news organizations with large reach and sustainable, independent revenue,
- c) strengthening civil society collaborations, and
- d) offering investigative journalism grants to journalists at the concerned news agencies.
