

Ms. Jintana Chanbamrung, Director-General of the Department of Women's Affairs and Family Development, Ministry of Social Development and Human Security

Ms. Jintana graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Social Work, and Master of Social Work (Social Welfare Policy Administration) from the Faculty of Social Administration at Thammasat University. She started her career as a social worker at the Department of Public Welfare. Ms. Jintana has accumulated her experience in social welfare and human security development both at the local and policy levels. She has pursued leadership roles in formulating social welfare strategies and work plans for specific target groups in multiple government agencies. Her previous positions include Director of the Division for the Promotion of Rights and Welfare of Persons with Disabilities at the Department of Promotion and Development of the Quality of Life of Persons with Disabilities, and Social Development and Human Security in Samut Sakhon; Deputy Director-General at the Department of Social Development and Welfare; and Inspector General at the Ministry Department of Social Development and Welfare; and Inspector General at the Ministry of Social Development and Human Security. Currently, Ms. Jintana is the Director-General of the Department of Women's Affairs and Family Development which serves to provide recommendations, direct and follow up on the work of promoting gender equality and empowering women in Thailand. The goal of the Department is to empower women in all dimensions and create a gender equal society in collaboration with partners including government agencies, private sector organizations, civil society and international organizations.
